

SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1744.

Venice, February 16.

IS Serene Highness the Duke de Modena is still here, and there is not the least Probability of his returning to Italy, in order to resume the Command of the Spanish Army. We did, indeed, imagine, that by this Time there would have been no such Army, since, when his Highness quitted it, he look'd upon the Affair to be desperate; and imagined, that he should have received an Account of their being made Prisoners of War. We begin now to entertain an Opinion, that the late Treaty between the Courts of Dresden and Vienna, has put a Stop to Prince Lobkowitz's Proceedings; and when we find him at Liberty to act again, we expect to hear, not only of his attacking the Spaniards, but of his taking the necessary Steps for invading the Kingdom of Naples; to which he has been sufficiently provoked, by the underhand Supplies of Ammunition, Artillery, and Recruits, afforded by the King of the Two Sicilies to the Count de Gages. The Sardinian Minister is more assiduous here than ever in his Negotiations; and, it is thought, the Republick is more inclined to enter into the Measures of the Queen of Hungary, and her Allies, than at the Beginning of the War. However that Matter be, the Ambassador lately sent to London, is supposed to be thoroughly instructed, as to the Sentiments of the State; so that nothing can be known with Certainty, till after he has conferred with the British Ministers.

Vienna, February 22. Count Caunitz, who is at present her Majesty's Minister at Turin, will speedily set out for Brussels, where he is to take upon him the Office of Prime Minister to Prince Charles of Lorraine, and the Arch-Duchess, as Governors of the Austrian Netherlands. It is look'd upon as a Thing certain, that Prince Charles will not stay above a Month, or Six Weeks, in the Low Countries; and will then set out for the Rhine, where he is to command the Army in Chief, and to have Veldt Marshal Count Traun to act under his Orders. Every Body expects, with Impatience, the Marquis de Botta's Manifesto; the rather, because it is whispered at Court, that the Czarina is satisfied with it, and that we shall hear no more of that Affair. Private Letters, however, from Hamburg and Berlin insinuate the contrary, and pretend, that it was with a View to stir more closely into that Affair, that, when the Empress of Russia set out for Moscow, she left Orders for bringing the Great Princess, and her Consort, the Prince of Brunswick, from Riga to Petersburg. It is likewise very doubtful, whether our Court will withdraw any considerable Body of Regular Troops out of Bohemia, Moravia, &c. the Upper Palatinate, notwithstanding the strong Assurances given by a certain Foreign Minister of the Pacifick Dispositions of his Court at present. Our last Letters, from Berlin say, that the Earl of Hyndford, his Britannick Majesty's Minister there, had frequent Conferences with his Prussian Majesty; from whence it was conjectured, that something of Importance is on the Carpet, the Certainty of which would be very agreeable News here.

Brussels, March 1. His Imperial Majesty intends to send speedily a Person of Distinction, to compliment his Serene Highness the Duke of Wirtemberg upon his Marriage. We still talk, with Confidence, of forming an Army of Observation; but, as every Day produces some Alterations in the Names of the Princes who are to furnish the Troops that are to compose it, and as we cannot learn, that as yet any of them have received Orders to quit their Winter-Quarters, we are inclined to question, whether there be altogether so much Certainty in this Affair, as the Court would have us believe. There is less Doubt in Relation to another Piece of extraordinary News, which is, that Two new Electorates will be shortly erected; since Orders have been already given to the Imperial Commissary, to take the necessary Steps for proposing that Matter to the College of Electors immediately; where, we flatter ourselves, it will meet with a very favourable Reception. The Count de Bena, whom his Catholick Majesty has appointed to succeed the Count de Montijo, as his Ambassador here, is speedily expected; and, it is said, he will bring with him very considerable Remittances, in Consequence of the late Treaty concluded by his Imperial Majesty with the Courts of France and Spain, and it is then supposed, that we shall soon see the Imperial Army in a Condition to take the Field.

General Post-Office, London, February 8, 1743.

WHEREAS the Post-Boy, going out with the West Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, attack'd on the Highway at the Staling Place, on the other Side of Turnham-Green, by a single Highwayman, who took the said Post-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags: The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-sized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head, and he rode on a Sorrel Horse with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Acton, the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplish in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelocke, Secretary.

Several Ships are come down, but the Wind blowing so hard could not get their Names. L O N D O N.

They write from Ratisbon, that her Majesty, the Queen of Hungary, has given express Orders for redressing all the Grievances justly complained of by the Inhabitants of the Electorate of Bavaria, and has likewise directed all imaginable Precautions to be taken for the Security of that Country; and, amongst others, the Repairing the French Fortifications at Ingolstadt and Stadthaus; which is supposed to be occasioned by a Report that has some time prevailed, of a Design formed by the Imperialists and French, to invade that Electorate in the Spring.

According to some late Advices from Paris, the French King has sent a new Pretender to Franckfort, viz. the Count de Mailly, a very near Relation of the new Duchess of Chateauroux, who takes upon him the Title of Count, or rather Prince Nassau, as claiming the Succession of the late Prince of Nassau Siegen; but it is believed his Pretensions will not receive any great Countenance at the Diet, especially, as another Prince of the House of Nassau is already in Possession of his late Highness's Estates.

The same Letters say, that according to their last Accounts from Madrid, his Royal Highness the Prince of Asturias is still in a very declining State; sometimes mending, sometimes growing worse, insomuch, that the most able Physicians know not what to make of his Distemper; but that his continuing in this Condition, made a deep Impression on the People, who have the warmest Affection for his Person, which they never fail to testify, by the loudest Acclamations, whenever he is able to appear in Publick, which is but seldom.

Yesterday his Majesty went to the House of Peers with the usual State, and being seated on the Throne, the Royal Assent was given to the following Bills, viz.

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Malt, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year 1744.

An Act to empower his Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as his Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against his Person and Government.

An Act for Dissolving the Marriage of Henry Duke of Beaufort with Frances Scudamore, his now Wife; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

An Act to prevent Abuses in the Weighing and Packing of Butter in the Town and Borough of New Malton, in the County of York.

An Act to oblige Overseers of the Poor to produce their Rates.

An Act for Establishing a Fund for a Provision for the Widows and Children of the Ministers of the Church of Scotland.

Likewise to several Road and Private Bills.

Both Houses of Parliament are adjourn'd to Monday. His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Middlesex, has given Orders to the respective Commanding Officers belonging to the Militia of the City and Liberty of Westminster, to hold themselves in Readiness, at a Day's Warning, upon any Emergency.

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, dated Feb. 29.

S I R,

Last Night arrived here the Lark, Whitford, from the Gold Coast. The last Place of her Trade was Annamaboo, or Accra. She came thence the 20th of October, and meeting with long Passages, put into Annabona, and then again into Tercera, one of the Western Islands, where his Mate, and five or six Men, were sent on Shore to purchase Bannanas; but a storm coming on, he failed, and left them and his Boat behind, and bore away for Lisbon; from whence he failed 14 Days ago, with the Success and Blandford Men of War, and sundry Ships, but I cannot hear the Names of more than the Molly, Tape, for this Place, whom he parted with off Ushant last Saturday, and she is not arrived here yet. We have this Day an Account, that the Industry, Bryan, from Leghorn for Bristol; and the William, Stold, from Bristol and Falmouth for Leghorn, were both taken by a Schooner Privateer the 21st, or 22d inst; and that both Masters are at Viana, but no Account of the Ships.

The Virginian, Lewis, from Bristol for Virginia, was seen going in there. The Planter, Lavers from Antigua, was arrived at Carolina the 7th, past.

THE HISTORY of POPERY. By several Gentlemen.
Being a full and genuine Account both of the Doctrines and Practice of the Papists, from the primitive Ages of Christianity, gradually carried on to the End of the Council of Trent. This Work takes in all that is material of what was published in the Reigns of King Charles and King James the Second. Wrote by HENRY CARR, Gent. And it is worth Observation, that of all the Writers that have appeared in Defence of Popery, not one of them have ventured to reply to this Book, any other Way than by arraigning and condemning the Author of it; which was done at the King's Bench in the Guildhall of the City of London, by Judge Jeffries. To which are now added, many curious Observations vouch'd by unquestionable Authorities, both of Papist and Protestant Writers. The Whole being dispos'd in a regular, concise, and familiar Manner. Adapted for the Entertainment of the more judicious Part of Mankind; and People of a lower Rank and Capacity may thereby be furnished to oppose the artful Sophistry of Priests and Jesuits, which are here traced thro' the darkest and most intricate Mazes of that Mystery of Iniquity; and the daring Insolence of the Bishops of Rome, in deposing Emperors and Kings at their Pleasure. With a brief Account of the Lives of all the Popes, the Celibacy of the Clergy; of their Masses, their Councils, Canons, Decrees, Schisms, Saints, Croixes, Crucifixes, Reliques, Images, Pilgrimages, auricular Confession, Peter-Pence, Indulgencies, Traditions, Rule of Faith, Scriptures, Index Expurgatorius, Visible Church, Election of Popes and Cardinals, kissing the Pope's Feet, Pope Joan, Thomas à Becket, Transubstantiation, Purgatory, Curies and Cruelties on Wickliffe, Huss, Sir John Oldcastle, Luther, and many thousands of other faithful Martyrs; together with a true Relation of all the other horrible and detestable Idolatry and Cruelties practis'd by the Church of Rome, attempt ed and carried on in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as in foreign Countries; are all treated of at large, with Copper-Plates.

To which is added,
An Abridgment of the History of the Reformation, and of the Persecution in Queen Mary's Reign, chiefly extracted from Thuanus, Fox, Sleidan, Burnet, Strype, Rapin, and others.

It destroys all Vicieties of the Blood, opens all Obstructions, and quickly changes a pale livid Countenance into a florid beautiful Complexion. This Medicine is not unpleasant to take, of a grateful Smell, and of so safe a Nature, that it may be given to a Child of three or four Years o'd. It excites neither Vomiting nor Purging; but effects a Cure by operating upon the Blood and Juices.

Where is likewise sold, 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle, BOERHAAVE'S Chemical Elixir:

Being A real SPECIFICK for Curing the WHITES in Women:

AS the immediate Cause of this Melancholy Disorder is, a Weakness of the Fibres and Vessels of the Womb, and a retarded Circulation of the Blood thro' its Vessels; this Medicine wonderfully strengthens those Fibres and Vessels, and gently increases that necessary Circulation of the Blood thro' them. It strengthens the STOMACH, and amends the Solids and Fluids; a depraved State of which is another Cause of the worst Kind of this Disorder. Hereby it restores decay'd Nature, causes Conception, and prevents Miscarriages. It removes Pains and Weakness of the Back, and those pricking Pains often felt in the Privy Parts; and all other Symptoms of this Disorder.

The Person to whom this was communicated, (and who prepares the Medicine) has, from a great Number of Trials, found its surprising Efficacy, even in the most deplorable Cases, and when all other Remedies have proved ineffectual. Many Women, by taking some two, some three Bottles, have been recovered from the most extreme Degree of Weakness, when given over, and nigh at Death's Door, and made hearty, hale, and to conceive and bear fine healthy Children, to the great Comfort of Families who had despaired of Issue. And, as he has found its great Efficacy in his private Practice, a sincere Desire for its being a general Good, is the only Design of its appearing in this publick Manner.

Select Collection of One Hundred and Fifty of the most humorous and diverting Stories, which are to be found in the Writings of the best English Authors. Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

Which in a few Days infallibly cures VARIOUS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, whether ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimic, with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Cruditie and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, all Pains, and four Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Cruditie, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinaacious Watchings, trouble some Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with several Views and terrible Apprehensions at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, check so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chemically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifics in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, restoring the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

Concerning GLEETS and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn GLEETS and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectic Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn GLEETS, Seminal Effusions, involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn GLEETS known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to a natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMIC RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with GLEETS or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as GLEETS and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radcliffe's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
